LCFF Budget Overview for Parents

For the 2020-21 school year school districts must work with parents, educators, students, and the community to develop a Learning Continuity and Attendance Plan (Learning Continuity Plan). The Learning Continuity Plan replaces the Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP) for the 2020–21 school year and provides school districts with the opportunity to describe how they are planning to provide a high-quality education, social-emotional supports, and nutrition to their students during the COVID-19 pandemic.

This chart provides a quick summary of how much Alpha Cindy Avitia High School plans to spend for planned actions and services in the Learning Continuity Plan for 2020-2021 and how much of the total is tied to increasing or improving services for high needs students.

Alpha Cindy Avitia High School plans to spend $6,889,424 for the 2020-21 school year. Of that amount, $1,676,753 is tied to actions/services in the Learning Continuity Plan and $5,212,671 is not included in the Learning Continuity Plan. The budgeted expenditures that are not included in the Learning Continuity Plan will be used for the following:

Expenses not included in the LCAP include but are not limited to (1) compensation and benefits for teacher instructional time, (2) compensation and benefits for school administration and network support, (3) furniture, (4) facilities, repairs and janitorial costs and (5) other operating and administrative expenses.

Update on Increased or Improved Services for High Needs Students in 2019-20

This chart compares what Alpha Cindy Avitia High School budgeted in the 2019-20 LCAP for actions and services that contributed to increasing or improving services for high needs students with what Alpha Cindy Avitia High School actually spent on actions and services that contributed to increasing or improving services for high needs students in the 2019-20 school year.

In 2019-20, Alpha Cindy Avitia High School's LCAP budgeted $1,276,582 for planned actions to increase or improve services for high needs students. Alpha Cindy Avitia High School actually spent $1,229,888 for actions to increase or improve services for high needs students in 2019-20.

COVID-19 disrupted some spending plans that would have otherwise occurred such as events and trips to promote college success and events to enhance community engagement. But overall, actions to improve services for high needs students did not decrease.

In addition, it should be noted that budgeted amounts in the LCAP do not comprise the full extent of funds that will be used to increase or improve services for high needs students as the LCAP specifically reflects budgeted spending toward the school's goals and priorities for the upcoming school year. As stated above, expenses not included in the LCAP include but are not limited to (1) compensation and benefits for teacher instructional time, (2) compensation and benefits for school administration and network support, (3) furniture, (4) facilities, repairs and janitorial costs and (5) other operating and administrative expenses. As a schoolwide program with a 92.46% unduplicated count, the overwhelming majority of the school's core expenditures including teacher instructional time and compensation and benefits of the school principal serve and provide a direct benefit to high needs students. These expenditures are not specifically accounted for in the LCAP.
