Discussion

Notes:

- ELD Priority - what will they look like? How is each grade prioritize and what does that look like?
 - Trainings for teachers - how can we utilize the ELD teacher to help teachers plan.
 - Meeting all the student needs
 - Challenge students that need it
 - Support students that need it
- Communication - sometimes information is given from different places at different times. Better communication with families.
 - Increasing visibility within our community. Getting the word out to other families in the community.
 - Parent outreach - having programs that will entice parents to want to be here.
- Students to be more comfortable in school and get along.
 - Tension with upper grade
 - Building character for upper grade students
 - 7 habits - thinking about stress and mindfulness and how to help kids deal with that and support each other in the classroom
 - More enrichments: assemblies, sports, sub committees (lunch-time activities)
 - Introduce the different grades to each other (older kids to mentor younger kids)
