ELPAC NOTES <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - There are two parts to these exams <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Group and Individual Speaking - About 30% of students have completed the Individual Speaking portion of the exam. - Students who pass this exam and pass their English course they may be Reclassified. They also will not need to retake this exam in the future. They will be able to take an elective class rather than FELD class. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Our goal is to reclassify 55% - We have 44.31% of students who are considered EL. - Reviewed Achievement Levels (1,2,3,and 4) - Last year, we administered the exam to 100% of students. Shout-out to Ms. Cory! We strive to replicate this completion rate this school year. - Reviewed 24-25 school year student data. - Q: Is there communication to parents about this exam? A: Yes, their FELD teacher has communicated various ways to parents. - Q: Have students received help on how to pass the exam? A: Yes, that is the focus of their FELD class. They also get the opportunity to take practice exams. 	de Invierno a Medio Año -

There may have been confusion in this question for our staff. DH will rephrase and redistribute survey questions.■ Staff were also concerned their prep periods would be reduced. TB provided feedback regarding the question also not being clear. Requested more clarity in the question.

- 85% of staff felt that student tardies will not change going from 4-5mins transitions
- Ms. Ramu suggested alternating weekly assemblies by grade levels. DH agreed there is a possibility for this.
- 56% 20 minute Advisory 5 days a week
- DH will send the survey to SSC members for feedback
